

I urge you to oppose further media consolidation. Please protect us from this kind of thing, not lead us into it. Did you notice what happened to radio after the telco act of 96? DIVERSITY is the strength of America. Please do not help the major media monopolies from increasing their hold of the public attention.